One British airman was shot down, Churchill announced, and two others returned safely to French soil. Though their aeroplanes were riddled, it is positively asserted that the bombs found their mark.

Churchill says that considering the length of the flight, the nature of the weather and the daring shown, the exploit constitutes a "notable feat of arms."

Berlin Exults Over Prospect of Victory; Petrograd Little Worried

LONDON, England, Nov. 23.—Although Berlin is exultant over the prospect of a great victory in Poland, experts here profess that the greatest significance is attached to today's despatches from Berlin acknowledging that the arrival of reinforcements for the Russian armies has postponed the decisive issue of the fighting in Poland.

Meanwhile official despatches from Petrograd continually report that both of the Russian wings are advancing steadily, which seems to indicate that the outcome at the center is thought certain.

H. P. A. WOULD ELEVATE NATIVES OF THESE ISLES

Final Steps Taken Saturday In Organization To Rival The Chamber of Commerce

The final step toward the organization of the Hawaiian Protective Association, recently inaugurated with Delegate Jonah Kuhuio Kalaniana'ole as president, was taken Saturday evening when several hundred Hawaiians and Honolulu residents of other nationalities gathered in Aala park and listened to several speakers who outlined the aims and purposes of the new benevolent society.

That the Hawaiian race should be perpetuated; that the Hawaiians should devote more thought to temperance and education, and that the Hawaiian Protective Association should, through cooperation, become elevated to the same level as that now occupied by the Chamber of Commerce and other local civic and commercial organizations, was the gist of an address delivered by Chief Justice A. U. M. Robertson.

In order to make the Hawaiian Protective Association a success, said the chief justice, it is necessary that the Hawaiian people be educated on points of economy, temperance and general thriftiness. He urged that the Hawaiians in the territory stand united in their support of the association, and advised the Hawaiians to cease from mortgaging their lands too heavily and—although he stated that he was not a prohibitionist—to abstain from the use of liquor.

One of the strong points of Mr. Robertson's address was his appeal for the domestic life of the Hawaiians, in that it must be protected from ruin, as he put it. He cited occasions where persons other than Hawaiians have contributed to the delinquency of Hawaiian girls, and stated that it is up to the parents in the matter of protecting their girls from submitting to temptation. The chief justice added that the time now has come when the Hawaiians must get together and learn more of that brand of civilization which exists outside the Hawaiian Islands. The Hawaiians must become more modern, he said. He urged that the Hawaiian race, which he expatiated in fast dying out, be perpetuated. In conclusion, the chief justice dwelt upon the aims of the new association, saying that, as it advanced, it would gain strength in the community and that the Hawaiians will be in a position

U. S. TROOPS ARE WITHDRAWING NOW FROM MEXICO

Vera Cruz Is Quiet, But Inhabitants Uneasy — Carranza Goes to New Capital, Orizaba — But Diplomatic Corps and Gen. Blanco and Soldiers Decline to Accompany Him — Indications Mexico City Will Be Turned Over Peaceably to General Villa

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Nov. 23.—The diplomatic corps has refused to accompany Gen. Carranza to Orizaba, which he has designated as the new capital of the Constitutional government.

Gen. Lucio Blanco, after a heated argument with Gen. Obregon, has likewise declined to abandon the city and retained sufficient soldiers to maintain order.

There has been much looting by the troops of Carranza during the past week.

The indications are that Gen. Blanco is friendly to Villa and will deliver Mexico City to him peaceably.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Nov. 23.—Evacuation of the U. S. troops was begun at 9 o'clock this morning, according to the plan of the administration to withdraw the soldiers in an effort to avoid a possible cause of friction.

The city is quiet, but the inhabitants are nervous. Three hundred of them left with the troops.

STAINBACK WOULD SUSPEND A LUNA FOR THIRTY DAYS

High Sheriff Given Recommendation to Discipline Thomas Kennedy for Laxity

Attorney-General I. M. Stainback recommended to High Sheriff Jarrett this morning the suspension of Thomas Kennedy, a prison luna, for a period of 30 days, on the strength of charges of ill-treatment of prisoners made against Kennedy by D. M. Kuphea and which apparently have been confirmed by later investigation, conducted by the prison inspectors, the attorney-general and the sheriff.

Kuphea, who was active in the capture of three escaped prisoners a week ago, complained to the high sheriff, the prison inspectors and attorney-general that on the recovery of the men Luna Kennedy permitted another prisoner, George Allen, to thrash one of them, even aiding in it by striking one over the head with the butt of his revolver. Kuphea said that when he attempted to interfere Kennedy threatened to give him similar treatment.

The report that E. K. Rathburn, who assisted in taking charge of the three escaped prisoners, had a hand in the alleged brutality was not verified and he was exonerated from responsibility.

A petition for habeas corpus in bankruptcy has been filed in the federal court by Robert Messing.

FILIPINO HAS NOT LOST HIS FAITH IN U. S.

Vice-Governor H. S. Martin Is of Opinion This Confidence Calls Him to Washington

'BROWN BROTHERS' FEEL SURE OF INDEPENDENCE

War's Effect Felt in Farthest South Possession, Declares Philippine Commissioner

The continued faith of the Filipino in the American people and the promise of the administration that the islands shall ultimately have independence, is to a large extent instrumental in the trip now being made by vice-governor H. S. Martin of the Philippine islands to the mainland, according to a statement made by him this morning. The vice-governor is en route to Washington, D. C., whither he has been called by Secretary of War Garrison to remain until final action has been taken by the national legislature on the Jones bill. Before filling the office of vice-governor Mr. Martin occupies a portfolio in the insular commission that keeps him closely allied with the interior department.

"I may remain in Washington for several months," it all depends upon the time taken in the debate upon the Jones bill," stated Mr. Martin before leaving the Pacific Mail liner, Manchuria, as the guest of a number of prominent local Democrats at a luncheon and a personally conducted tour about the city and its environs.

Secretary of War Garrison called me to Washington to be present at the discussion of the important measure. I may also serve in an advisory capacity," he added.

Vice-governor Martin also stated that he expected to work in connection with the Philippine resident commissioners, Manuel Earnshaw and Manuel Quezon. The Jones bill has passed the house of representatives and will shortly come before the senate. That it will be a hard fought measure is predicted a certainty and some doubt was expressed in Manila before Mr. Martin's departure for the United States that final action on the measure

NEW DEPARTMENT WITH MURRAY AT HEAD, IS PLAN

Proposal to Separate Water- and Sewer-Works From Engineering Department

The creation of a separate municipal department for waterworks and sewerworks and the naming as superintendent of Harry Murray, former supervisor and recent candidate for mayor, is a plan that is slowly taking shape, to be worked out definitely within the next few weeks and carried into effect, if it is finally decided upon, when the new Republican city administration takes office. Such is the report in political circles. It is known that Murray would accept such a position, providing the new department is given standing and its superintendent real powers. A part of the plan is that the waterworks and sewerworks department be separated entirely from the city engineer's department, and be responsible solely and directly to the board of supervisors itself.

When Supervisors-elect Robert Horner and Ben Hollister return from California, it is expected that the proposal will assume more definite shape.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Former Governor Walter F. Page of Hawaii will return to the islands by the Manoa. He has been in Washington for a number of months.
